

Museum and Gallery Guide

Choose one of these basic lines to help you look at works of art in the museum or gallery.

After looking around the museum or gallery for a little while, let your line help you choose a work of art to study. Make a drawing of the fundamental lines in the work of art.

Record the artist, title, and date of the work of art. As a follow-up you can search online to learn more about the artist.